The National Weather Service has issued a tornado warning in effect until 5:45 p.m. for parts of Coryell County and Bell County.

The weather service tweeted: "Potentially violent tornado west of Salado is ongoing now! This is a life threatening situation! If you are in this area: Get in a bathtub in an interior room with no windows, put pillows or a mattress over your self. Bicycle helmets are good too!"

The village of Salado reported tornado sirens are sounding.

According to radar, the warned area appears to be north of Fort Hood and south of Gatesville for the areas near Pidcoke and Flat.

A severe thunderstorm warning is in effect until 6 p.m. for Killeen and Harker Heights.

A tornado watch for the whole area remains in effect until 11 p.m.
